

Please protect the current ban on cross-ownership. We need to protect our current sources of information, which is best done by keeping multiple sources so we don't hear the same news stories as we miss so many others. This goes against our liberties of democracy and freedom of information.